

MCS BANK ANNOUNCES BOARD OF TRUSTEE CHANGES

Lewistown, PA- William J. Heath has been elected as Chairman of the MCS Bank's Board of Trustees following the retirement of Harold E. Johnson, Jr. The action took place at the bank's annual reorganization meeting held on February 2, 2021.

Heath has served on the bank's board since 1996, during which time he has also served on various board committees.

Along with his brother Matthew, Heath was the long-time co-owner and operator of the Robert D. Heath Funeral Home, Inc. in Mount Union, PA.

Heath earned a Bachelor of Science in Biology degree in 1972 from The Pennsylvania State University; afterward, he attended the Pittsburgh Institute of Mortuary Science (PIMS). Following his graduation from PIMS in 1973, he interned with his father, Robert D. Heath before becoming a licensed funeral director in 1974.

Heath and his wife "Genny" reside in Mount Union. They are the parents of two boys, Clint and Tyler, and are the grandparents to five grandchildren.

Johnson's retirement comes following 25 years of service on the board and having served as board Chairman since 2016. During his board tenure Johnson also provided leadership through his service on various board committees. Following his retirement, Johnson's service was honored with his appointment as Trustee Emeritus.
